
Computer workstations are set up by the Library in all the Branches and are offered to the users for their study and research activity and academic needs. These workstations have access to the Internet and to the electronic resources and services of the Library through its Portal. The authorized use of workstations must conform to the Library's mission and academic role.

Access to workstations is offered to:

- members the academic community of the University of the Aegean (undergraduate and postgraduate students, faculty members, researchers and administrative staff), by using their institutional account
- visitors, who can will obtain login credentials (username/password) from the Library staff. These credentials are valid for one day only.

There is no time limit for the use of the workstations.

External USB floppy and CD/DVD-ROM drives are available for use on the Library workstations.

Print stations are not available at workstations.
